Volume 11, Number 38/40

Good morning,

Last week was a great week for our graduated class of 2014. On Tuesday more than 125 seniors collected scholarship money, book awards, certificates of appreciation and more. Through the generous contributions of our school and extended community we continue to support graduating seniors.

Thursday's rain didn't damper the enthusiasm or the crowd for the senior barbecue. It was packed and the students laughed, ate, danced, signed yearbooks and just enjoyed each other's company.

Yesterday's culminating Graduation Ceremony went off beautifully; the crowds, weather, behavior, all in our favor.

Behind all of these endeavors are the dedicated faculty and staff members of Malden High School who selflessly give to our students. I could not possibly list everyone who played a role up front or behind the scenes but please know that your efforts are valued and appreciated.

Malden High School Vision Statement

The Malden High School community believes in the potential of all students to learn, to grow, and to become active, conscientious participants in the 21st century global society. We believe that students learn most effectively in a safe, respectful environment that encourages diverse viewpoints, promotes critical thinking and perseverance, and establishes rigorous standards for all. We honor the diverse nature of our community, promote social awareness and community involvement, and strive to meet the needs of all students through innovative methods and continual professional development. We are committed to ensuring that Malden High School graduates are thoughtful, independent, purpose-driven, lifelong learners. We seek to equip all students with the skills and habits necessary to successfully navigate and contribute to our ever-changing world.

School notes of interest:

Good morning folks,
Just another reminder that we do have copies of the 2014 Maldonian Yearbook on sale for $80 if you'd still like to get one. We could surely use the business. Let me know if you would like one and I'll have it sent your way. Again, thank you all!

The 4th annual Knowledge Bowl was a great success. Brunelli House was victorious! Cara Joyce, Ann Pember, Diem Phan, Shereen Escovitz and the other academy teachers and staff support this event each year and we appreciate their efforts.
