MALDEN HIGH SCHOOL VISION STATEMENT

The Malden High School community believes in the potential of all students to learn, to grow and to become active, conscientious participants in the 21st century global society. We believe that students learn most effectively in a safe, respectful environment that encourages diverse viewpoints, promotes critical thinking and perseverance and establishes vigorous standards for all. We honor the diverse nature of our Malden community, promote social awareness and community involvement and strive to meet the needs of all students through innovative methods and continued professional development. We are committed to ensuring that Malden High School graduates are thoughtful, independent, purpose-driven, lifelong learners. We seek to equip all students with the skills and habits necessary to successfully navigate and contribute to our ever-changing world.

Memorial Day brings a time of reflection for all of us and also reminds us why we are eternally grateful for the lives we have

To All Malden High School Staff, Students and Administrators:

Hello everyone,

Yesterday was Memorial Day in our great nation. It was one of the most solemn and important days of the calendar year. We take this day to remember, recall and honor those serving in the military who have made the ultimate sacrifice to help keep our country and all of its citizens safe and free. Here at Malden High School we have always had the highest respect and admiration for our military and the sacrifices they have made for us. On Friday, our school community once again hosted a memorable and fitting tribute to our military, in conjunction with our U.S. History classes. We were proud to greet nearly 50 local veterans who took the time to participate in the ceremony, which was led by Malden High School students. Our own Mr. Capansky, a member of the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves was joined by other military men on stage, along with Mayor Gary Christenson and Malden Veterans Service Director Kevin Jarvis. Mr. Cole led our incomparable MHS Chorus in a stirring, multiple-verse rendition of The Star Spangled Banner. Thank you to all who contributed to and participated in this special day at MHS where we honored so many.

STRIKE UP THE BAND!! Malden High School Band takes 2nd Place @ State Competition

CONGRATULATIONS to the Malden High School Band, who spent about 16 hours (including travel time) attending a statewide High School Band Competition in Springfield, Mass. As you can see, above, MALDEN HS BAND brought home hardware! “The band students performed so well! We placed second overall in a very intense competition today. Thank you all for the well wishes that were sent our way! Please congratulate a band member if you see them (this) week!” MHS Band Director Erin O’Brien-Mazza tells us.

TOURNEY TIME!

Uncharted Territory for MHS Boys Volleyball & Boys Lacrosse as they embark on postseason. FIRST TIME EVER for BOTH!

For Head Coach Jurkowski and the Malden High Boys Volleyball team it was the best record ever (14-6), First league title and the first time the team has made it to the States... all in one season!

By the time you read this, you will already be making plans to go see the MALDEN BOYS LAX team play their FIRST-EVER State Tournament Game !!

Malden High student Sherley Maxim is winner in Israel Arbeiter Holocaust Essay Contest

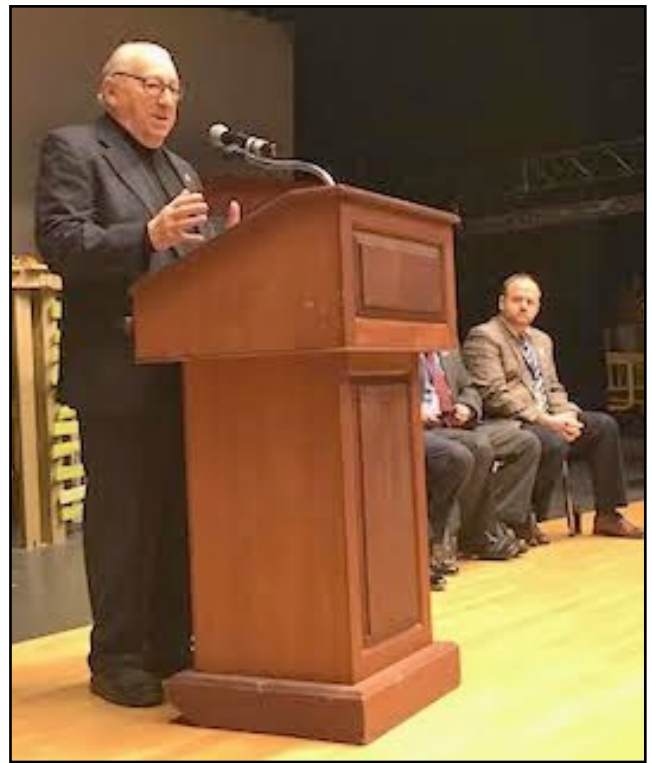

On Friday's in his weekly message to the District, Malden Public Schools Superintendent John Oteri gave a "SUPERINTENDENT SALUTE" to the Malden High School Social Studies Department:

A Salute to the MHS Social Studies department (Marsha Healy, especially!) for helping our students submit essays to the Israel Arbeiter Holocaust Essay Contest. Sherley Maximin won the contest (there were almost 250 entries, so it's a tremendous accomplishment) and Joanne Ho won third place. The students will receive their awards at Faneuil Hall in June.

THURSDAY is 'MARINE EATING DAY'

Good morning! I teach Marine Biology (Honors and CP) and throughout the year students have learned about organisms they didn't know existed as well as organisms that are commonly eaten from the ocean. As a way to bring these two concepts together students have researched recipes that include the organisms we have learned about and we will be cooking them from scratch! This is a great opportunity to provide students with a new experience as well as practice an important life skill. Please excuse participating on Friday, June 1 so they can participate in this exciting learning experience. Students know they are to report to first lunch and then my room B442 for the remainder of the day which are Periods 2,3,4. You are also welcome to stop by at any time to see the students progress!

Malden High Athletics takes part in the 2018 Malden Youth Baseball Parade

Some community outreach to 'Future Tornados'!

Malden Public Schools Athletic Director Charlie Conefrey, at right, joined Mayor Gary Christenson, center, and Malden High baseball coach Steve Freker, left, at the annual Malden Youth Baseball Parade to kick off the 2018 season. Over 200 local youth baseball players, dozens of coaches and many parents also took part. Malden High sports teams, coaches and its athletic staff are always looking for ways to meet 'Future Tornados' !!

Malden High School: You should all be proud of the way you honored the late, great Dave Holland & his MHS legacy!!

Good evening all,

On behalf of Pat Laidley, Liz Smith, Jo-Ann Cassidy and myself we would like to thank you for joining us May 14 to celebrate Dave Holland and his MHS legacy.

The young people involved did a terrific job sharing with all what Mr Holland

I second those remarks, you all did such a nice presentation for Dave, he would have gotten a hoot out of it! What a blessing to see the support that was given to the students and to all of you. MHS is our family, and (May 14) we really showed who we are, and what it means to be a family. Thank you for caring so much, and saluting one of our own. He was a kind, loving and spirited man, who is greatly missed.
— Janice O'Malley

meant in their lives. In addition, the fact that they requested this opportunity and helped in the planning shows how much they have grown over these past 4 years.

Michelle Holland could not get over the show of support for her family and was very appreciative.

This is what a Malden High education is all about- preparing students both academically, emotionally and socially for the real world.

Thank you for being a part of this day!

MHS GUIDANCE TEAM on GRADING FOR NEW/TRANSFER STUDENTS

Hello teachers,

As we approach final grading time, we ask that you please take a moment to check on the grades for any student who has entered your class as a new/transfer student during the year.

As you may know, some students enter with transfer grades while others may have incomplete records when they arrive. School Counselors make every effort to email grades (if they are available) at the time that the student enters for their first day. If you have not received grades, we may need to confirm with you how a student will be graded for the year.

If you have any questions in regard to how you will calculate a final grade for a new/transfer student, please email the student's House Principal and the House Counselor for clarification, at your earliest convenience. We hope that this will prepare us for a smooth final grading process for all. Thank you.

Kind regards,

Susan Lessard and the Guidance Team.

Heather Northrop - Grade 9 Holland and Boyle

Caitlin Quinn - Grades 10-12 Holland

EURIPIDES WOULD HAVE BEEN PROUD!: MHS Play Production closes out year with powerful production of The Trojan Women

“Powerful.” “Bleak.” “Gripping.” “Thought-provoking.” All are phrases that were used by some of those who witnessed one of the highlights of the school year this past week, Thursday and Friday nights’ performances of The Trojan Women by the Malden High School Play Production troupe. The subject matter is the aftermath of a bloody, unrelenting war in ancient Greece between the Athenian Greeks and the Trojans. Still another superb effort by Mr. Walsh and his students, Bravo!

MAC SINGLETON SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED: A legendary figure in New England athletics over 60 years

Macdaniel “Mac” Singleton had much to brag about, but that wasn’t his style. Coach Singleton was a legendary figure in New England athletics for more than 60 years, but his true passion was community involvement.

Mac was a star athlete Malden High School and in college, where he was captain of his teams, which led him to play both professional football and baseball. Coach Singleton broke race barriers by becoming the first African American head football coach in New England, and also served as the Athletic Director of Intramurals and head women’s basketball coach at Boston State. Very few knew about these accomplishments, Mac never spoke of them. Mac was the type of guy you would see in the corner of the bleachers or behind a fence during your game, but would vanish at the end before anyone besides the players realized he was there. He was involved with everything that was good in our city. Anywhere he could make a difference training, mentoring, guiding and inspiring the youth in Malden through athletics he was right there. Soft spoken and humble, Mac never missed an opportunity to encourage and coach a kid. If you were lucky enough to know him, he would give you a great uplifting story right before he told you how to improve your swing or make the right tackle.

These amazing Malden High student recipients of this scholarship embody what was best about Mac Singleton, the ultimate unsung hero:

Ms. Scibelli and Manny Queseda Nylen prepare to announce the Mac Singleton scholarships

Queenie Dang, like mac, she is a silent leader. Queenie jumps in and helps out with anything and everything. between youth field hockey camps and the rec dept. saturday morning programs and play like a girl. queenie just silently does whats needed to be done, with no fanfare or announcement

Salma Bezzat...another amazing junior who leads by example. i watched her every saturday morning coaching young kids with patience, knowledge and humor.

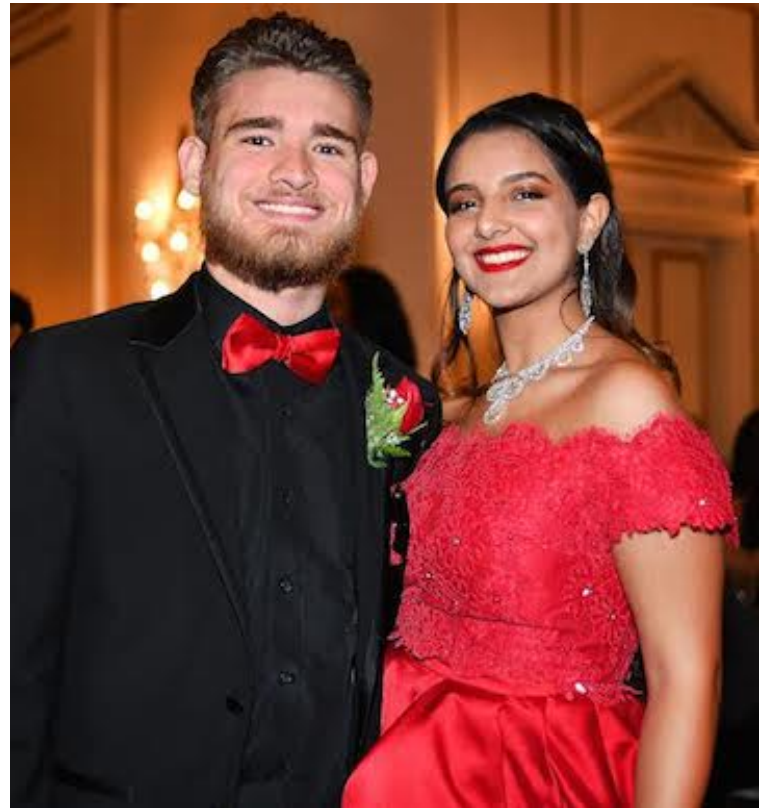

Rachael Eaglin...another amazing role model and leader. she helps to run the very successful rec dept track program and helps out at challenger league baseball. in her nonchalant attitude, sense of humor and natural talent.

Jenn rosario...ever since i can remember she has ALWAYS been there to help out with everything...for no other reason than it was the right thing to do!!!
