Senior Internship Presentation Fair

The Malden HS Class of 2010 Senior Cleef Jonathan explains how he spent this year's internship as an aide at Forestdale K-8 School in Malden. MHS Seniors toiled across the city in schools, city departments and businesses, as well as some outside the city, assisting in operations and other activities. On Thursday, all of the interns made presentations. Steve Freker

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT!
MHS Prom RED CARPET
Class of 2019 will then celebrate at the Renaissance Hotel in Boston

The most anticipated social night of the Class of 2019's school year comes tonight with the Senior Prom and the RED CARPET promenade from Holden Street to the Courtyard

It's 'Senior Time' at Malden High School as the Class of 2019 is taking center stage

To All Malden High School Educators, Staff, Students & Administrators:

May is one of the best months in our school community and there are plenty of reasons to make us happy and keep us positive as our school year begins the final turn in its stretch run. However, as our thoughts may catch us looking ahead to summer break, we all realize that there is plenty to be done for this school year and the academic work to be completed for the majority of our students in the ranks of the underclassmen.

Mr. Mastrangelo

This week, to all staff: You never disappoint! Once again, outstanding job with the MCAS. Everyone stepped up and did a great job with the roles they were assigned. The team of Shereen, Heather, and Natalia had the entire process planned to perfection. Leanne Glennon was an amazing support as well. Two down and one to go! Not sure if I say this enough, you are AWESOME!!!! Thank you.

For our seniors, tonight is the signature social event of the year here at Malden High School, the traditional Red Carpet extravaganza right followed by a splendid evening of dining and dancing for nearly 500 guests at the Renaissance Hotel in Boston for our Senior Prom. Once again I would like to personally thank everyone who played a role in planning this terrific evening, administrators, faculty and staff. Also, there is much work under way for the myriad events that take place next week for seniors and other students, leading up to Graduation Day, June 2. I continue to be amazed and truly grateful to all of you for the many ways you show our students how much you care about them and effort you continually make to nurture and mentor them, each and every day. — Mr. Mastrangelo

Malden High School Maker Faire

Mr. Mastrangelo speaks to two students Thursday at the Maker Faire with Ms. Freeman, who created a scale model of a "De-Stress Room" where people who are feeling anxiety and stress could decompress, unwind and keep themselves stable through various means. Steve Freker Photo/For the Malden Public Schools

MALDEN HIGH SCHOOL VISION STATEMENT

The Malden High School community believes in the potential of all students to learn, to grow and to become active, conscientious participants in the 21st century global society. We believe that students learn most effectively in a safe, respectful environment that encourages diverse viewpoints, promotes critical thinking and perseverance and establishes vigorous standards for all. We honor the diverse nature of our Malden community, promote social awareness and community involvement and strive to meet the needs of all students through innovative methods and continued continued professional development. We are committed to ensuring that Malden High School graduates are thoughtful, independent, purpose-driven, lifelong learners. We seek to equip all students with the skills and habits necessary to successfully navigate and contribute to our ever-changing world.

Malden High Senior Shataeya Smith receives Middlesex Bar Association's Law Day Scholarship

The glory of justice and the majesty of law are created not just by the Constitution - nor by the courts - nor by the officers of the law - nor by the lawyers - but by the men and women who constitute our society - who are the protectors of the law as they are themselves protected by the law.

MALDEN HIGH SENIOR PEER TUTORS COMMENDED for THEIR DEDICATION & COMMITMENT to OTHERS ALL YEAR

Malden High School junior organizes Speaking Workshop

On May 2nd and 8th, junior Lana Giha organized a speaking workshop as a part of her NHS project. The workshop was meant to be split into two sessions to help give advice and assistance to those wishing to better their public speaking skills.

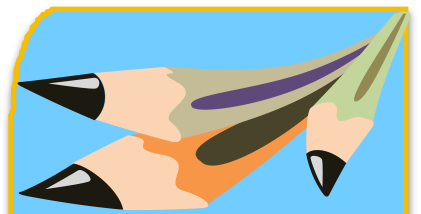

The event took place in the library at Malden High and was approximately 30 minutes long each and was planned “weeks in advance,” states Giha. The main takeaway that made this event a success was how to “differentiate from good and bad presentations” as well as knowing what to do during presentations.
