Malden High School Vision Statement

The Malden High School community believes in the potential of all students to learn, to grow, and to become active, conscientious participants in the 21st century global society. We believe that students learn most effectively in a safe, respectful environment that encourages diverse viewpoints, promotes critical thinking and perseverance, and establishes rigorous standards for all. We honor the diverse nature of our community, promote social awareness and community involvement, and strive to meet the needs of all students through innovative methods and continual professional development. We are committed to ensuring that Malden High School graduates are thoughtful, independent, purpose-driven, lifelong learners. We seek to equip all students with the skills and habits necessary to successfully navigate and contribute to our ever-changing world.

Good morning,

Today marks the opening of spring sport tryouts and practices! The weather may not be cooperating but student-athletes and coaches are ready to go!

We'll be doing our part in early April to celebrate the coming of Spring; on Monday, April 6th we'll celebrate baseball's opening day with "Hat Day." Anyone who wants to wear a hat for the day can pay one dollar. All proceeds will go to the second annual "Karnival." See Ms. Kirby for more details.

Congratulations to Malden Play Production for their performance of Van Itallie's The Serpent yesterday at Massachusetts Education Theater Celebration. This year, the class performed in a non-competitive festival with a greater focus on education, workshop, and community.

Adjudicators still recognized the incredible work of the students by honoring the entire 20 person cast with an Excellence in Acting Ensemble work.

Kasya Jensen, Richard Melgar and Aigul Fitzgerald were singled out with "Excellence in Acting" awards.

Congrats, too, for the entire Play Production cast and crew for the production of Women & Wallace and The Serpent this past Thursday and Friday.

Best,
Sean Walsh, Allen Phelps, Miranda Libkin

Hello everyone,

On Thursday of last week, the staff of The Blue and Gold launched a campaign to raise money for the commemorative magazine celebrating 100 years of student journalism at Malden High School, as well as the oral history event, which will happen on Friday June 12th, from 6-9 pm.

You can access much more information about both projects by following the link below.

I am forwarding this on behalf of the staff in hopes that you will share on social media or with anyone who may be interested in supporting their cause. The target audience is the community of Malden, Ma, current members and alumni of the Malden High School community, supporters of journalism, and supporters of student-run projects.

You can also follow the campaign for updates by clicking the link below.
