Volume 11, Number 36/40

Good morning,

Winding down? No such thing...there are several activities of note this week. Please see the calendar below and please check X2 for updates.

The Memorial Day Assembly is always one of my favorite events of the year. The reverence and respect shown to our Veterans is impressive. I would like to thank Todd Cole for organizing the program and Carol Mastromauro and the Social Science teachers for preparing our students.

At yesterday's City of Malden Parade 2006 MHS graduate Renata De Carvalho was one of the speakers. Renata is a registered nurse at Mass General and in her spare time represents us as Miss Massachusetts.

On Sunday senior Bobby Madden hosted a walk to support his "Brick Wall" campaign to raise scholarship funds for deserving students. Bobby was supported by many members of the MHS Captains Council and several members of the Malden community including Police Chief Kevin Molis and Mayor Gary Christensen.

Good morning Malden staff!

We at Salemwood School are putting together our first annual Salemwood Locks of Love Fundraiser which will be held on Saturday, May 31st from 12-2pm. Please mark your calendar and join us for some fun for a great cause. This event is open to the public.

We are asking for anyone who would like to donate their hair (10 inch minimum) to come on that date and have it done by a licensed hair stylist. For students, if they can have a parent or guardian accompany them to the even that would be greatly appreciated.

We would also love for anyone and everyone to contribute and help us raise funds for the Locks of Love organization. We will have refreshments to be sold (with all proceeds going to the Locks of Love) and entertainment.

Please join us...we would love to see you! Attached, please find our flyer. If you can post that in your school we would greatly appreciate it.

If you have any staff or students who are interested in donating their hair, please drop me an email with their name and school and we will add them to our list.

So far for staff at Salemwood, myself and Kristen Reidy will be donating our hair.

A little summary about Locks of Love. They are a non-profit agency that has volunteers who take the donated hair and make it into wigs. It takes about 6-8 ponytails of hair to make one wig. These wigs are given to children up to age 21 who have lost their hair due to cancer or other diseases. The average cost for a wig is between $3500-$6000. It's a great organization to support, especially since the kinds of support they provide to the children are so crucial.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you,
