Go Malden!

The Tornado Times is put out at the beginning of each school week.

The contents of the Tornado Times are intended to inform Malden High School students and staff as well as the greater Malden High School community. If you would like to add something please submit the contents to Principal Dana F. Brown, dbrown@maldenps.org. Stories, pictures, reminders, club, activity, and class notes are all welcome.

Malden High School Vision Statement

The Malden High School community believes in the potential of all students to learn, to grow, and to become active, conscientious participants in the 21st century global society. We believe that students learn most effectively in a safe, respectful environment that encourages diverse viewpoints, promotes critical thinking and perseverance, and establishes rigorous standards for all. We honor the diverse nature of our community, promote social awareness and community involvement, and strive to meet the needs of all students through innovative methods and continual professional development. We are committed to ensuring that Malden High School graduates are thoughtful, independent, purpose-driven, lifelong learners. We seek to equip all students with the skills and habits necessary to successfully navigate and contribute to our ever-changing world.

Good morning,

Perhaps this is the week we turn the weather corner!

Congratulations to senior Terrica Dang, recipient of the "Law Day" Scholarship, annually presented to a student who excels in the social sciences and has a passion for law and government. Terrica attended a ceremony at the Malden District Court this past Friday afternoon and was proudly introduced by one her recommenders, Greg Hurley. Rick Tivnan also recommended her. Pat Dailey and I were in attendance to support Terrica and Mr Hurley!

Before heading to Malden District Court for the celebration I had the opportunity to witness one of the very best events of the year, the Malden Special Olympic Day Games. Hundreds of competitors and volunteers participated and contributed in some way. The day turned out to be great. I would like to thank many, especially Ellie Feldstein, Betsey Hanifan, Barbara Scibelli, our crack PE staff of Briggs, Conefrey, Payeur and Urquhart, and all of the other PE staff in the District. Kudos to all of the special education paraprofessionals and teachers in the District for what they did Friday and everyday!

This week:

Continuing our focus on social and emotional health:

May 11, 2016 @ Malden High School, 6:30-8:00 p.m.

“Families for Depression Awareness” Parents and teens experiencing depression with family members will share their life experiences with all. This is a good time to hear firsthand what it is like to be the parent of a teen who is depressed and to hear directly from teens who have experienced depression and the challenges that they face. This program is free.

students Merjem Rizvancevic, Hamza Rizvancevic, Asma Soltani, Manel Soltani, Phuong Nguyen joined faculty member Abbey a presenter at the Boston EdTalks event held week in Boston.
to go Abbey and students!

His portrait of a Malden firefighter met the criteria of the contest where students looked to show “City Pride” in a single photo. For his efforts, he was given a gift card to spend at Hunts and the MHS Media class was given a $500 certificate from the MAC Group, an independently owned corporation that works to assist schools with media and arts programs by offering high-tech equipment at the most reasonable price.

Kulamavalavan’s photo was on display for the entire month of April at Hunts’ flagship store with other finalists from over 10 local city high schools. His shot beat out over 50 other entries to take top honors. MHS junior Gabe Toribio was among the top 12 photos also on display during the month.

Dear MHS,

Please join the NHS for its annual Induction Ceremony on Tuesday May 10th from 7pm to 9:30pm in the Auditorium. Both returning and new inductees are listed below. Their parents, friends, and many others will be there for the ceremony. As is the tradition the seniors will each give a brief tribute to someone who has significantly touched, moved, and inspired them to some major degree. Afterwards, we will adjourn to the Cafe for light food and beverages as well as to view their poster boards of the service projects in which they completed.

Good morning everyone,

As we get closer to the end of this school year, I am looking to retrieve the library books that are out so that I can get them inventoried and back on the shelves.

There are over 1100 books out there (some lost that will be deleted). There are some students who just took some books out recently and they will have until June 10th to return them.

If you could remind your students to return their books, I would appreciate it!

ELA teachers, if I could get a copy of your class lists, I could print off overdue notices for your students. It is hard for me to print them off and give to homeroom teachers as many students do not go to homeroom.

Also, if there is a library budget for next year, I am looking to purchase resources for the library that will help students with your curriculum along with casual reading books. If there are any non-fiction topics that you would like to see here in the library, I will do my best to get them ordered. I know that the students use google and the databases for research, but books are always a good thing too.

For the teachers who gave me ideas for resources at the beginning of this school year, I am waiting arrival of 2 shipments from my vendor of these resources (what I could order). Thanks for being patient!

Thanks everyone!
