

You are about to embark on an incredible journey through high school. It will have its ups and downs, its trials and tribulations, and its joys - so many joys. Before you embark, the faculty of Malden High School wanted to share with you a travel guide. Your summer reading is, therefore, to familiarize yourself with the high school. Read the following articles, scan the web resources, watch videos, engage with the educational, athletic, cultural, and personal opportunities that exist at Malden High. Then, on your first day, you will meet with a senior orientation leader to discuss what you noticed and any questions that you may have.
